Boxes? Pails? Crates?

Fasteners Direct offers a diverse range of packaging options to meet various needs. Their selection includes traditional boxes, providing convenient storage and organization. For bulk orders, durable plastic pails are available, offering enhanced protection and easy handling. Additionally, custom crates are offered for specialized requirements, ensuring secure transportation and storage of fasteners.

Customize your packaging with FD colored pails. These are a great option to easily identify your parts quickly and efficiently. We can also label them with your logo, part number, description and any information that is needed.

Fasteners Direct packages in durable plastic pails on solid-top Power Pallets for added durability in transit. The pallets and custom crates are next-level options that will get your product safely to you and your job site.
