Custom Kitting

Grab and go. How many man hours can you save per week or month when employees are scrambling to find loose parts? FD Kitting is a game-changing service built to save you time and money.

With tens of thousands of parts always in stock, Fasteners Direct will organize and package them as needed.

We offer many packaging options to suit your needs and can easily accommodate basic small part kits to complex kits for specialized jobs.

Our kitting department features thousands of square feet dedicated for inventory, assembling kits and custom labeling as needed.

Advantages:

- ✓ Part consolidation from multiple numbers to one single SKU
- ✓ Saves time for purchasing department with less parts to order
- ✓ Cost savings for purchasing generating one PO vs. multiple POs
- ✓ Save time for receiving department with less parts to handle
- ✓ Can be integrated with VMI or Sure Stock to prevent stock outs
- ✓ Specialized or personalized labels are available

Custom labels provide a way for our customers to personalize their packaging. Customers are encouraged to use their own designs that reflect your company's image.
